Alaminos village is 28 kilometers from the city of Larnaca, in a prime location with excellent view of the Mediterranean. It is 800 metres from the beach on the south coast of the easternmost island of the Mediterranean, between the villages Agios Theodoros and Mazotos. It is at walking distance from the seashore, 20 minute drive from Larnaca airport, 25 from Nicosia, 35 from Limassol and 15 from Tersephanou future Golf course. Alaminos village is a small community with population of 300 people. Crossing the community you will travel through narrow, picturesque alleys, which provide a different dimension of the landscape, through the imposing presence of the old, traditional houses that are ridden in green and flowers. Most houses, almost untouched and without any alteration, witness the rich history of the place.
